TECH TALK

Round:1 (Prelims}

Round:2 (Finals)

Rules:

- Participants have to select the topic on the spot (Individually)
- Each of the participants will be given an amount of 5 to 8 minutes to prepare for the topic they have selected.
- Each participant might be allotted a specific amount of time to present their talk.
- The presentation format should be delivered with a clear understanding and the language of delivering your talk must be in English.
- Criteria for evaluating presentations, such as clarity of communication, depth of technical content, creativity, and engagement with the audience.
- Each of the participants is shortlisted based on the points they scored.
- The Topics will be chosen on the spot with 2 or 3 minutes to prep.
- The Checkmate for each of the final participants is to answer the questions raised by jury and audience.
- The time limit of 8 to 10 minutes and exceeding or involving in immoral activities will lead to disqualification.